- Partnerships for Guided Tours - Cruises.

The strength of our partnership with the leading organizers of tours and cruises guarantee total service to our customers in finding the best and most suitable program for their vacations.

We also organize trips for companies, sport clubs or any organized group of individuals according to their specific needs.

4. Organizing conferences and workshops.

For business customers we provide the possibility of organizing meetings, conferences or workshops for their company, dealing with:

- Configuring the selected area upon the needs of each congress
- Audiovisual equipment
- Catering
- Transport to and from the convention center
- Travel bookings for all participants
- Secretarial support

A professional event organizer assists Congress Committee in the selection of the site, the program structure, financial management, sponsors, etc. We have the experience and expertise to negotiate the most favourable financial arrangements for all services in need for the conference.

Some advantages are:

1. We deal with the most difficult part of a conference such as the registration and accommodation of participants. Also, we take responsibility for transport, events and catering . These areas are important and determine the success of your conference.
2. Knowing most of the conference areas, their strengths and weaknesses, we can recommend the appropriate place for your conference. We can offer the best price for the accommodation of delegates, due to long-term cooperation with the hotels.
3. Special design for your VIP guests.

ORIGIN SKG TRAVEL guarantees the quality of its services to you and your delegates leading to the success of your conference.

To ensure the proper planning of your conference we set a person who is the head of the conference and will work with a supportive group of assistants. In addition, the head of the conference gives regular reporting to management, so that the whole company is aware of the details and progress of the conference. We have an experienced and well-established group of people who have organized many conferences and events. Moreover, our participation in international tourism organizations and conferences, provides continuing education and training to our staff.

We have organized conferences for 10 to 500 people. All of them were equally important to us. The philosophy of our company ensures that any conference, regardless of the number of people attending, is organized in the most efficient way and according to our client's requirements.

We only work with recognized professionals in the field of tourism and conferences. So having the ability to process more than one offer, we ensure the best terms and prices for you.

We always arrange an on the spot inspection of all proposed sites to see the quality of benefits and services they offer.

5. Participation in International Conferences - Exhibitions.
